Privacy Statement

We are committed to your privacy, our policy on handling information is to comply with the National Privacy Principles for the fair handling of personal information as set out in the Privacy Act, 1988 (as amended). In accordance with those principles and the Company's privacy policy, a person will be given access to their personal information on request (as detailed in our company privacy policy).

We collect personal information for the purpose of enabling us to supply products and /or services and for assessing applications for commercial credit, managing accounts and if necessary insuring our risk in collecting debts. This information may also be disclosed to our related or associated companies, contractors, and other credit providers whether or not your account is overdue and if necessary, Debt Collectors and credit reporting agencies.

If all or part of information requested is not provided we may not be able to supply you with goods and/or services and we may not be able to process any Application for Commercial Credit.

If you have any questions or concerns about our Privacy Policy, please direct your enquiries to the Privacy Officer at our Head Office address.
